Q31 Recently President Obama created a Deficit Commission of Republicans and Democrats to recommend aplan to reduce the federal deficit. The proposal would reduce deficits by about four trillion dollars over thenext decade. To get these savings, the commission recommends 75 percent come from spending cuts and25 percent come from increases in tax revenues. Spending reductions include cuts to Medicare, SocialSecurity, and defense spending. The tax increases include higher gasoline taxes, lowering the corporate taxrate but limiting business tax deductions, and placing a limit on the tax deduction for homeownerswith mortgages over five hundred thousand dollars. Now, overall, do you think this proposal is a good ideaor a bad idea? If you do not have an opinion either way, please just say so.
